AMEND Senate Bill No. 1296

House Bill No. 1303***

by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 22-1-103, is amended by adding the following as a new subsection:

( ) A person who is seventy-five (75) years of age or older is excused from jury service upon a showing that the person is seventy-five (75) years of age or older and that the person is incapable of performing jury service because of a mental or physical condition. The jury coordinator of the county may excuse the person from jury service upon receiving a written declaration stating the person's name and date of birth, and declaring the mental or physical condition that causes the person to be incapable of performing jury service. Failure to provide satisfactory documentation may result in a denial of the request to be excused. The declaration may be completed by the person or by a personal representative of the person who is eighteen (18) years of age or older. The jury coordinator of each county shall make available declaration forms for the purpose of this subsection ( ). This subsection ( ) does not prevent a person seventy-five (75) years of age or older from participating in jury service.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 22-2-306, is amended by deleting subdivision (a)(6) and substituting:

(6) Process by which the juror may request to be excused due to age or a hardship pursuant to § 22-1-103, including the juror's obligation to submit documentation or a declaration in support of the juror's request and information regarding the availability of declaration forms; and

SECTION 3. This act takes effect July 1, 2021, the public welfare requiring it.
